

declared by the said John Abel the Testator as and for his last Will and Testament in the presence of us who in his presence have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses thereof - Jona: Gray - William Atkinson - Benjamin Dwybrough -
At 27th May 1883

Campleman. This is the last Will and Testament of me Ralph Campleman, Terrington in the North Riding of the County of York Fromman that is to say First of all I give devise and bequeath unto my Grandson Thomas Stephenson my dwellinghouse and garth with the appurtenances thereunto belonging which is freehold tenanted by three tenants situate lying and being in Long Westgate Street Lane Scarborough and to his heirs and assigns for ever and to be put in possession of the same at my decease Also I give and bequeath unto my Granddaughter Mary Pierdon the sum of one hundred pounds of lawful British money Also I give and bequeath unto my nephew Robert Campleman the sum of ten pounds of lawful British money Also I give and bequeath unto my nephew Ralph Campleman the like sum of ten pounds of lawful British money Also I give and bequeath unto my niece Elizabeth Campleman the sum of ten pounds of lawful British money Also I give and bequeath unto my niece Sarah Campleman the like sum of ten pounds of lawful British money All which said legacies I order to be paid by my executor hereinafter named at my decease Also I give devise and bequeath unto my loving wife Hannah Campleman my dwellinghouse and garth with the appurtenances thereunto belonging situate lying and being in Terrington aforesaid on the east of Mr. Prowds garden for and during the term of her natural life and at her decease I give devise and bequeath the same unto my said Grandson Thomas Stephenson and to his heirs and assigns for ever and when it so happens that my said Grandson Thomas Stephenson is put into the possession of these premises my desire is that he would continue my brother Robert Campleman as tenant for the barn and yard as they were to very useful to him he paying fifteen shillings yearly and every year for the use of them Lastly all the rest residue and remains of goods chattels and personal effects whatsoever and wheresoever the same may be I give and bequeath unto my said wife Hannah Campleman for and during the term of her natural life and at her decease I give and bequeath the same unto my Grandson Thomas Stephenson and to his heirs and assigns for ever And provided either my nephews or nieces above mentioned have a desire for any of the household furniture at the decease of my said wife my wish is that my said Grandson Thomas Stephenson would accommodate them And I do hereby constitute and appoint my said Grandson Thomas Stephenson sole Executor of this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking all former Wills by me heretofore made In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the twenty fourth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and three — Ralph Campleman — Signed sealed published and declared by the said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament in the presence of us who in his presence and in the presence of each other have set our hands as witnesses here to And I hereby appoint Thomas Adamson and John Kersley both of Wigginton as Guardians and Trustees to see that every thing be complicated according to this my will — Phineas Hicks — George Goodrick — James Towarley —

that every thing be completed according to this my will - I Shedd Hicks - George Goodwin - Sumner Setchfield. This is the last Will and Testament of mee, Edward Setchfield of Woburn in the North Riding of the County of York I give and devise to my wife Sarah Letchfield the house and premises wherein I now live to hold the same during her natural life and immediately after her decease I give and devise the aforesaid house and premises to my son James Letchfield his heirs and assigns for ever and at the death of my wife Sarah Letchfield I order my son James Letchfield to pay to my son Edward Letchfield one guinea I also give and devise to my wife Sarah Letchfield for the term of her natural life or so long as she continues my widow all these my messuages tenements garth and premises situate in the Township of Wellburn aforesaid and now in the tenure or occupation of Tho^s Pearson, Matthew Dale and myself and immediately after the death or marriage of my said wife or sooner if she thinks proper I order the said tenements garth and premises to be divided by two persons chosen by my children in manner following. And I likewise dispose of the said divided premises in manner following I give and devise to my daughter Sarah Letchfield her heirs and assigns for ever the house now in the occupation of Matthew Dale together with a piece of ground the length of the said house from east to west and to extend from the south front of the said house ten yards to the out side of the fence wall that shall be built the said piece of ground to be fenced with a stone wall at the expence of my daughter Sarah Letchfield as soon as it comes into her possession but if my said daughter Sarah Letchfield should die my son Edward Letchfield shall have the said house and piece of ground to my son Edward