

therof be given and bestowed yearly for ever viz ten pounds a year for the teaching such poor children in the parish of Lombloton in the County aforesaid, as shall be esteemed fit Objects for such a charity by the sixteen men or six men usually chosen for regulating and laying the Church rules in the said parish, and to the minor part of them, and also to elect and appoint a Schoolmaster for teaching the said children in reading and writing, the Churchwardens for the time being to have an equal power in this also. I give the residue and remainder of the profits of the said estate over and above the said ten pounds a year in trust to the Churchwardens of Lombloton and the Churchwardens of the township of Hinton with power to collect the said rents by turns each his year and to let and let the aforesaid premises with the major part of the sixteen men aforesaid, and the minister of the parish for the time being, and amount to give up to them once a year for ever, and to pay twenty shillings a year for ever to the minister aforesaid for preaching a sermon yearly, on some subject of Charity upon the Sunday next after my funeral, unless when the Anniversary day falls on a Sunday, and then to be preached on that day and notice to be given always the Sunday before. I am what money shall remain in the hands of the Churchwardens or Churchwardens in trust aforesaid, after the payment of the sum aforesaid, I will that it be put out to interest and also to be employed by the Churchwardens aforesaid with the consent of the major part of the vestry aforesaid to put apprentice in some trade any poor boy or boys in the townships of Hinton Lombloton or Hitting Hinton always to him the predecessor. I am I give a power to the said two Churchwardens with the advice of the vestry men or the majority of them to disburse part of the said money retained by them for repairing of the messuage or house at Hinton as often as need shall require. I am I give to my dear wife all my goods and chattels and do make her my whole and sole executrix of this my last will and testament, reading all former wills and testaments. In witness whereof I have unto set my hand and seal the day and year above written. I have soaled signed published and declared by the Statute to be his last will and testament in the presence of us witnesses, and attested by us in his presence Henry Calver, John Sakman will. for ever.

Lordy
et

In the name of God Amen I Thomas Lordy of Strington in the County of York Esquire being in perfect memory yet mindful of Mortalityte made and Ordained this my present last will and testament in manner and form following. viz first and principally I commend my soul into the hands of Almighty God my maker, and to Jesus Christ his only son my saviour and redeemer hoping to be saved by his merits only and by no other way or means what soever, my body I commit to the earth to be decently buried where it shall please my executor, and for my worldly goods which Almighty God hath of his beautiful goodness bestowed on me his unworthy servant I dispose of thus followeth. I am I will that my debts and funeral expenses be paid and discharged I am I give unto my son Thomas Lordy all my freehold estate within the lordship of Strington namely one messuage or house wherein my sister Jane and I have now dwelt with a garden and barn and common right, also one rood or half land in the Old Mill field called Crookle rood butting and bounding from South wood hedge on the west, and Ganthorp ground on the east, also one rood in the in the Church field called Cantdale rood butting from Cantdale hedge on the south, and so down the west dugs to Wiggwiltors ground on the north, also one land in the how field called Dellspring land from the highway on the south, and so down through the west dugs to Wiggwiltors ground on the north, all which said lands houses and premises and all the appurtenances thereto belonging I do give unto my said son Thomas Lordy and his heirs for ever, he paying out of the said sum of thirty five pounds twenty pounds part thereof unto my daughter Anne Lordy, and ten pounds part thereof unto my son Robert Lordy, and the other five pounds to the overseers of the poor, for which said sum of five pounds the Dellspring land stands mortgaged to the overseers. I am I give unto my daughter Anne Lordy five pounds