Wicks In the name of God Amen The twenty third day of February 1730 I John Wicks of Eorington in the County of York a man being very weak in body but of perfect mind and memory do make and ordain this my last will and Testament principally and first of all I give and bequeath my soul into the hands of God that gave it and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in a decent Christian burial at the discretion of my Executors and as touching such worldly estate whereunto it hath pleased Almighty God to bless me in this life I have devised and dispose of the same in the following manner and for my Executors I give and bequeath to my wellbeloved daughter Ann the sum of thirty pounds of good and lawful Money of Great Britain to be paid by my Executors upon the twenty third day of February 1731. Item I give and bequeath to my wellbeloved son George the sum of thirty pounds of good and lawful Money of Great Britain to be paid him by my Executors at the twenty fourth year of his age or likewise that he be provided with all necessaries by my said Executors during the time of his apprenticeship and if he dies before he comes to the age of twenty four years then to be equally divided among my Executors. Item I give and bequeath to my wellbeloved daughter Mary and Elizabeth to each twelve pence of good and lawful money to my grand child Robert Birkers five shillings to my grand child Mary Birkers two shillings and six pence to my grand child John Birkers five shillings and to my grand daughter Elizabeth two shillings and six pence. Item I give and bequeath to my dearly beloved wife and my two sons John and William whom I likewise love to make and ordain my sole Executors of this my last will and Testament all and singular my lands tenements and houses and by them and their heirs forever freely to be enjoyed and enjoyed. If my dearly beloved wife should remove from my two sons John and William and should live separately then my two sons
