

But should my said wife retain the sum of two hundred and seventy pounds her fortune now in the hands of James Dodson of Gylstone then my Will is that the said annuity of thirty pounds be reduced to eighteen pounds per ann. And if my said wife persists in holding the Deed in force for the thirty pounds per ann. then my will is And I give the said sum of two hundred and seventy pounds to my said son John Filder Jackson I also give unto my daughter Sarah Jackson the sum of four hundred pounds over and above any sums that she may have heretofore received I also give to my said daughter all my plate and the best of my household goods and furniture I also give unto my said wife all the goods and furniture and every article which she claims as her own together with the bed and hangings in which we sleep and any other articles of furniture &c which my Daughter may think proper to give her I also give unto my sons Henry and William each the sum of One hundred pounds And in regard to the residue and remainder of my household goods and furniture Stock Crop &c which may happen to be in my possession at the time of my decease I give and bequeath to my said son John or Filder Jackson And lastly I do hereby nominate and appoint my said son John Filder Jackson and my said Daughter Sarah Jackson ~~Joint~~ Sole Executors of this my last Will and Testament In Witness whereof I the said John Jackson have to this my Will set my hand and seal this fifth day of January one thousand eight hundred and forty nine — John Jackson Esq. Signed sealed published and declared by the said Testator John Jackson as and for his last Will and Testament in the presence of us who at his request in his presence and in the presence of each other have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses — John Filder — M<sup>r</sup> Fidd —
Witness 8th February 1850.

In the Name of God Amen I William Tate of Hetherpe in the Parish of Brington in the County of York, German being of sound and disposing mind memory and understanding but mindful of my mortality do make publish and declare this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following (that is to say) First I order all my just debts and funeral expenses to be paid and discharged I also give and bequeath unto my daughter Anne Tate the sum of Five hundred pounds of lawful and English money when she arrives at the age of twenty one years Also I give and bequeath unto my daughter Sarah Tate the sum of Five hundred pounds when she arrives at the age of twenty one years the interest of the said legacies left to my two daughters I give to my Executors to bring them up until they attain the age of twenty one years should either of my daughters die without child or children before she attains that age Then I give the legacy left to her to her surviving sister my Executors to have the interest of half the last named legacy for her life All the rest residue and remainder of my goods chattels and personal estate or whatsoever and wheresoever the same may be and not heretofore specified or disposed of after the payment of my just debts funeral expenses and the expenses of proving this my Will I do hereby give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Sarah Tate Should both my children die (without child or children) before they are twenty one years of age Then I do hereby give and bequeath unto my said beloved wife Sarah Tate the whole amount of Legacies which I have given and bequeathed unto my said two daughters And I do hereby make ordain constitute and appoint my said beloved wife Sarah Tate Sole Executrix of this my last Will and Testament hereby revoking and